a Copy of, and he only telling me, it was a pretty Hypotheſis, I never reflected upon ſince, till theſe electrical Experiments lately read before the Society, and thoſe Accounts of luminous Emanations from human Bodies, had brought them back to my Mind; and I think I have now ſet them a little beyond a mere Hypotheſis. I am,

SIR,

Your moſt obliged,
Devoted, humble Servant,

Cromwell Mortimer.

July 4. 1745. the SOCIETY adjourned to Oct. 24.

Printed for C. DAVIS, over-againſt Gray's-Inn Gate in Holbourn, PRINTER to the ROYAL SOCIETY, M.DCC.XLV.

N. B. A Letter from Dr. Miles to Mr. Baker having been publiſhed in the Phil. Tranſ. N°. 469. as that Gentleman has nothing in View but the Diſcovery of Truth, he thinks proper to rectify a Miſtake he then made, in ſuppoſing certain Bodies to have been animal Subſtances, from their ſeeming to have a ſpontaneous Motion in Water: it having ſince appeared to him that they were only the Seeds of the Bidens foliis tripartitò diviſis. Cæſalp. 488. TOURNEFORT. p. 462. Tab. 262. that had fallen into the Water, and were poſſibly poſſeſs'd by ſome Inſects which might give them that Motion.

ERRATA.

In Tranſaction 475. pag. 285. l. 24. for Calender, read Calendar: ib. p. 286. l. 1. for D, G, N and O, read G, D, N, and O.

In Page 373. Line 23. of this Tranſaction for Snonebergam read Sonnebergam: Ib. p. 393. l. 1. for Mr. read Dr. Bamber: Ibid. p. 457. l. 19. for Act. Med. Phil. & Hafn. read Acta Med. & Philoſ. Hafnienſ.